

2018-19 Application for Inbound Tour Operator Membership

Inbound Tour Operator Membership is available to travel companies (for example, receptive tour operators, destination management companies, or incentive management companies) with registered offices in the U.S. deriving more than 75% of their annual revenue from B2B inbound travel services to the U.S., and:

- the company must have been in business for a minimum of two (2) years, or
- the President/Chairman, a senior manager or principal in the firm must have been involved in a recognized capacity in the inbound travel industry for at least four (4) years.

All companies applying for Inbound Tour Operator membership should also present two brief letters of recommendation from companies within the industry indicating their good standing and professionalism.
